Mr. Lewis reported on the opening session of Congress and gave some thoughts on what the congressmen will try to accomplish during this session. The only other event Lewis mentioned was as follows:

"In London a dispatch that says Hubert Ripka, the man who signed and put into effect the orders by which the millions of Sudeten Germans who were expelled from their homes and their homelands at a cost of hundreds of thousands of lives after World War II, died today in a hospital at the age of 62."
